SUMMER HOOP CLINIC DATES ANNOUNCED
Hosted by Pentucket Coach John McNamara

The Progressive Basketball Academy will be hosting two weeks of summer clinics for girls in grades 2 through 9. Once again this year we will also offer a week of clinics for boys in grades 2, 3 and 4. The clinics will be held at Pentucket High School.

The Introduction to Basketball Clinic is for girls and boys in grades 2, 3, and 4 as of the fall of 2020. The clinic will be run the week of June 22nd. The session will be offered from 9:00 to 12:00 each day. The fundamentals of basketball will be taught in a fun filled week of learning skills and concepts. Awards are handed out daily. No prior basketball experience is necessary.

Our eighth annual Summer Hoop Clinic for girls in grades 4 through 9 will be run the week of July 6th. This camp is a fun week of basketball with the focus on skill work, fun competitions, and 2 games a day. A Camper of the Day trophy is handed out daily along with weekly awards. This camp sold out last year and space is limited.

All our clinics will now be offered through the Pentucket Community Education Program. To register for our clinics, please use the registration form below or go to the Community Education page on the PRSD website. Forms are located on the Progressive Basketball Academy link.
